2020 Composition Guidelines

- Each student may submit only one composition (piece of music) to be judged.
- The piece should be an instrumental solo written for the student's band class instrument.
- The piece should be original (not a transcription or arrangement).
- The piece must be a minimum of 16 measures.
- The piece must be presented by the student who composed it at Solo & Ensemble to receive adjudication.
- It is highly encouraged that the student perform their composition, but performance is not required.
- Handwritten or computer notation is acceptable, but legibility is required. Band directors may help with computer notation.
